The German Club Dance to Be Wednesday Night

The dance to be given at the park next week will be on Wednesday night, instead of Tuesday, as first announced.

Paducah Guests at Mayfield.

Miss Marie Griskill, of Louisville, and Miss Ethel Reynolds, of Cincinnati, the guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Reynolds, returned this morning from Mayfield, where a dance was given in their honor last evening by Miss Lottie Webb.

Mrs. Duley Becoming Known.

Mrs. H. H. Duley, of 518 Broadway, who has for the last few weeks been visiting in several cities in Kentucky, has received and attracted attention as an accomplished reader and elocutionist. The Louisville press has complimented very highly upon her recitals and entertainments. Mrs. Duley was the attraction of the day at a memorial day celebration at Jeffersonville, Ind., and also at the Sunshine club benefit at Macauley's theater in Louisville.

Will Wed in Cairo.

The marriage bans of Miss Willie McGarvey and Mr. Emile A. Goureloux have been published at the St. Francis de Sales church. The wedding will take place in Cairo, Ill., July 18. After the ceremony the couple will come to Paducah, and will go to housekeeping immediately at 621 South Thirteenth street. The wedding will be quiet. Miss Annie Goureloux will be the maid of honor and Mr. James McLaughlin the best man. Miss McGarvey is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGarvey, who resided in Paducah at 129 South Fifteenth street until this week, but have removed to Cairo, Ill. Mr. Goureloux is timekeeper of the car department of the Illinois Central shops, and a popular young man. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Goureloux.

NEWS OF COURTS

Suits Filed in Circuit Court.

A. L. Matlock filed suit against A. J. and John S. Miller for $306.35 with interest from July 4, 1900. A breach of contract for labor is alleged.

Charles T. Graham, administrator, filed suit against James E. English for $2,000 alleged due on a promissory note. An attachment was asked by the plaintiff.

Deeds Filed.

Theresa and Henry Gockel and Maggie and Joseph Gockel to Martin Vogt, property in the Norton, Jones and Ware addition, $1.

T. C. Skinner, of Fresno, Cal., to Martin Vogt, property on South Sixth street between Husbands and George streets, $1.

Mary W. and J. B. McGuire to J. H. Rutter, property on the north side of Clay street between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets, $1.

J. L. Potter to Burtha Pate, property in the county, $340.

OLD KITTY LEAGUER WILL TRY OUT WITH TEAM.

Woodring, an old Kitty league twirler, who has been on the pitching staff of Hopkinsville, will be given a try-out with Paducah. According to a letter from Manager Louis Angerweier, Woodring will be given an opportunity to display his ability against Hopkinsville this afternoon. Woodring is the old Kitty twirler of star ball for Cairo and was one of the invincible pitchers. Anderson, the fast little infielder with Paducah, is suffering with a sore leg and probably will be out of the game for several days.

"Dunk Botts" May Return.

Letters have been received here by friends from George Bingham, who removed to California about a year ago, that he is longing for his old Kentucky home. Mr. Bingham gained quite a reputation by his unique publication, "The Hogwallow Kentuckian."
